

LOS RIOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT CLASSIFIED SENATE
Board of Trustees Report – May 2021

AMERICAN RIVER COLLEGE

Olga Prizhbilov, Classified Senate President

No report.

COSUMNES RIVER COLLEGE

Julie Olson, Classified Senate President

Cosumnes River College held the final session for the Classified Equity Institute, the fourth session focused on, Understanding Native American Tribes, History, and Students within Higher Education, a Student Panel, and Key Takeaways from Part I,II, and III. The feedback regarding the final session from the Classified are the following...

- Have a better understanding of the history of Native American Tribes and how to serve Native American students
- Have a better understanding of the challenges students face
- Have a better understanding of the strategies designed to support students
- Have a better understanding of the of the impact of equity-minded practices
- The student panel received the highest satisfaction rating
- For future planning, respondents shared an interest in continuing equity professional development and understanding how to put this learning into action, including concrete examples of equity, diversity, and inclusive work.

To conclude this school year, the Classified Leadership will be transitioning into a new Leadership/membership of the Classified Senate, come July 1st, (elections are currently going on). Classified Appreciation will be May 13th via zoom, with a robust fun and exciting agenda. Finally, Open forums with the College President and his Executive team will continue during the summer months.

FOLSOM LAKE COLLEGE

Lindsey Campbell, Classified Senate President

FLC Classified Senate will be holding elections in May and June for a new President, Secretary/Treasurer and several Senator positions. The new terms will begin July 1st.

FLC held a Listening Session on Thursday, April 29th for Classified Professionals to gather feedback and input on the future changes to Financial Aid and Admissions & Records.

SACRAMENTO CITY COLLEGE

Ahmad Ameerzada, Classified Senate President

SCC Classified Senate has been working closely with the college administrators to conduct an open forum for the Centralization Process as well as how we can address concerns the Classified Professionals may have campus wide.

SCC Classified Senate is preparing to conduct an election for the new Senate officers. Updates will be shared with everyone as soon as the election result is final.