

The LRCFT continues to assist hundreds of faculty make the transition back to on ground teaching and serving students.

The LRCFT also extends our ongoing support to ARC President Melanie Dixon regarding racist hate speech that she unfortunately experienced.

The LRCFT continues to help plan the Cesar Chavez March which takes place on March 26 in Sacramento.

The LRCFT recently took part over two full days in the Sacramento Central Labor Council's interviews of candidates seeking Sacramento City council, Sacramento Board of Supervisors, and state Assembly political office.

The LRCFT PAFC will also interview candidates for the Sacramento City council election to be held this June.

Our exec. team this week will be attending the California Federation of Teachers three-day conference in San Francisco.

The LRCFT will be hosting trustee Dustin Johnson at our next meeting and will reach out to trustee John Knight to attend one of our board meetings this semester as well.

The LRCFT will contribute to support the Los Rios student graduations this May.

The LRCFT faculty picnic will be held on May 6 at the Sierra 2 center in Sacramento.

In closing, our late president Dean Murakami will be honored along with other labor leaders at the upcoming Salute to labor dinner on May 26 in Sacramento.