

The LRCFT is looking forward to entering formal negotiations with the District next semester. Our preliminary discussions with the District and our faculty membership indicate a promising start.

The LRCFT is pleased to see many women candidates endorsed by our PAFC who were recently elected to local public office, including the City Councils of West Sacramento and Sacramento.

The LRCFT would like to thank the District and local law enforcement for successfully managing the recent temporary safety lockdown at CRC.

I want to personally thank VC Mario Rodriguez and AVC Carrie Bray for working with us to bring improvements to Part Time Faculty health care. We are excited to see progressive advancements made on this topic.

LRCFT internal elections have concluded and we have filled a number of representative positions at SCC and elected a new Treasurer.

The LRCFT has taken an active role in supporting the UC academic worker strike at the UC campuses. As President of our union, I urge the UC to negotiate in good faith with the UAW to resolve the strike.

In conclusion, as we reflect upon the recent series of hate emails surfacing at SCC, I would like to reiterate that the LRCFT stands in solidarity with transgender people against injustice.
