- ARC, SCC, and CRC held Welcome Week events.
- SCC and ARC are planning events for Constitution and Voter Registration Day
- FLC held a Club Rush from 9/5-9/7 to bring attention to student clubs.
- ARC is planning an event to promote safety in social settings inside and outside of campus.
- CRC plans to host a Hawk-O-Ween event in the month of October.
- ARC's Center for Leadership and Development hosted a pancake social for the student body to meet their representatives.

Senate and Clubs & Events Board Accomplishments (i.e. surveys, engagement in campus and regional governance):

- All four colleges are successfully filling vacant seats on their student government boards
- The ARC's student senate will appoint a student to the hiring committee at their next meeting.
- FLC's student government created two committees: a media outreach committee and a bylaw committee.
- SCC had two of students serving in prominent roles in the Student Senate for California Community Colleges.
- CRC has reached a total of 17 active clubs on campus.

Leadership Development Accomplishments (i.e. conferences, trainings, workshops, guest speakers):

- CRC, SCC, and FLC have budgeted money for CCCSAA, conference that promotes quality student leadership.
- SCC and CRC are preparing to attend the SSCCC Advocacy Academy.
- ARC's Club and Events Board is hosting workshops to train current and prospective club officers on the basics of club formation and maintenance.
- SCC held a training day on the topics of Brown Act and parliamentary procedure.

I have verified the information listed in this report is an accurate account of events in the district.
